LAKE BUENA VISTA, Fla. – Couples looking to get married in Orlando, the best place in the U.S. to get married according to Wallethub, have a new option to consider following the opening of the Walt Disney World Swan Reserve, located in the heart Walt Disney World Resort.

The third property in the Walt Disney World Swan and Dolphin complex, the 14-story, 349-room hotel offers indoor and outdoor venues including a one-of-a-kind event space exclusively occupying the 14th floor, The Vue – perfect for an unforgettable wedding overlooking Walt Disney World Resort. Couples can use The Vue's 1,000-square-foot outdoor terrace, reception foyer and 4,000-square-foot ballroom for an unforgettable wedding experience - all overlooking the four Walt Disney World theme parks.

The contemporary, yet elegant, space offers seating for up to 160 guests, the latest in technology and enormous floor-to-ceiling windows providing spectacular views of several Walt Disney World fireworks shows. The Vue can serve as an all-in-one wedding venue location for a ceremony, cocktail hour and reception, or serve as reception only venue for a ceremony taking place elsewhere.

Beyond The Vue at the Swan Reserve, the Walt Disney World Swan and Dolphin can also host ceremonies at a variety of locations throughout the resort including several scenic outdoor spaces such as the resort's private white-sand beach, lakefront terrace or wedding courtyard.

To ensure a smooth wedding day, couples will work with the resort's dedicated Certified Wedding Planner Jennifer Sharpe and a full-service, experienced catering and event planning team to handle all the details to create a first-class celebration. Sharpe has extensive wedding and event-planning experience including roles with Disney's Fairy Tale Weddings & Honeymoons and The Ritz-Carlton.

Newlyweds Meredith Farrell Goldstein and Matt Goldstein, from Boston, hold the distinction of being the first couple to celebrate their wedding at the Swan Reserve and The Vue. Having grown up visiting the resort, the bride and groom decided upon their venue early on, during the resort's construction, and participated in hard hat tours prior to resort's completion and their wedding day.

"The Swan and Dolphin team was everything we could have hoped for and more," the couple said. "Being the first couple to get married at the Vue, we had a lot of questions about construction and the venue itself. The Swan and Dolphin team was with us every step of the way and greatly exceeded our expectations. On our wedding day, the whole team made us feel incredibly special and we could completely relax because we knew they had everything handled!"

The Walt Disney World Swan and Dolphin and Walt Disney World Swan Reserve make for an ideal destination wedding setting with more than 2,600 hotel rooms, a location within walking distance to EPCOT and Disney's Hollywood Studios and surrounded by entertainment and dining options galore. Within a short walk, guests can enjoy 6 pools, more than 40 restaurants, numerous recreational activities, Disney's Fantasia Gardens Miniature Golf, and Disney's BoardWalk. Hotel guests also receive complimentary transportation throughout Walt Disney World Resort.

In addition, the property features a variety of offerings to prepare for and celebrate the big day, including treatments at Mandara Spa and unique venues for brunches, rehearsal dinners and more. The resort also features numerous suites, perfect for out-of-town families, as well as luxuriously appointed Presidential suites, which can create an unforgettable stay for the newlywed couple.

As a hotel on Disney property, couples who want to enhance the magic of their special day have special access to add guest appearances from Disney characters to their reception.
