

John Blazon, MS Vice President of Sales, Spire Collection

John Blazon, MS, is Vice President of Sales for the Spire Collection since February 2010. Blazon is the former Wine Director for Walt Disney World Resort in Orlando, FL. During his tenure, John was responsible for the development of wine concepts and standards, including product selection, service, and training for 55 restaurants, 20 lounges, 18 resorts, 3 theme parks which also included Epcot's Food & Wine Festival.

John received his Master Sommelier diploma from the International Court of Master Sommeliers, during a fall 2004 exam in London, England and became the 59th MS for the American Chapter.

John continued to develop educational courses for Disney's food and beverage team which included the Disney sommelier certificate program in partnership with the Court of Master Sommeliers. In 2008 and 2013, John was elected to serve on the board for the Court of Master Sommeliers and was appointed as an inaugural board member to the American Guild of Sommeliers.

